Winners will be randomly picked from correct entries at the end of each week. Only Lehigh e-mail owners can enter. Each person can enter only once, extra entries will be discarded.

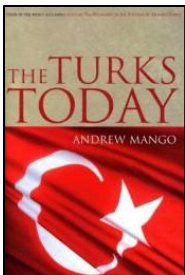

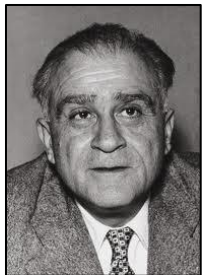

Books for Week 2

The New Life is strictly postmodernist fare, where plot and character are minimal and time and space tend to bend and warp in unexpected ways from Nobel Prize winner novelist Orhan Pamuk

A Mind At Peace its lyricism and resonant plot will leave U.S. readers wondering why they've had to wait so long to read this exquisite novel. from Ahmet Hamdi Tanpınar

The Turks Today offers an insightful, sympathetic portrait of recent Turkish history. from Turkey-born British author Andrew Mango
